

The traditional J-curves is still alive and confirm the relationship between moderate alcohol intake and cardiovascular disease and mortality

