

Two rivers BARRIQUE

White dry
Kontoura White

PGI THEBES

Land:

The vineyard (traditional buss vines) was planted in 1962 (57 years old) at the Southern slopes of Helicon Mountain (top of 1280 meters high), in Muses Valley at 380-420m altitude.

The vines per HA are 4440

The soil is clay and gravel with 3-5% gradient

The vineyard is not irrigated

The average yield is 9000 Kgr / Ha

Plot name: Episkopi

Wine:

Color is pale lemon with yellow (gold) notes.

Aromas of citrus, lemon, melon, dried fruits (almond) and vanilla notes.

Acidity is refreshing, average to high

Taste is mellow, creamy, layered, complex of mature tropical fruit and honey.

Body is medium with long aftertaste.

Awards in International Competitions

